

THE INDIANS.

The Savages Rampant.

St. Louis, June 18.—Dispatches from Hayes, Kansas, and other points, report the Indians very numerous between Camp Supply and Heart Creek, all on the war path. Several Government and other teams, and herds had been attacked, but so far the Indians had been driven off. One train was captured two days at Gypsum Creek fighting the Indians. A train from Camp Supply was attacked four times. It is no longer safe for teams or herds to travel without a strong force.

Thirteen Indians Killed, Trying to Stop a Locomotive.

SALT LAKE, June 18.—Gentlemen just arrived from Omaha reports as follows: On Wednesday the 15th, as they approached Platte River the engineer discovered a band of Indians about 300, all mounted, crossing the track. As the train neared the Indians began yelling. The engineer suspected that they were about to attack the train. He put on steam and dashed through them, killing 13 Indians and many ponies.

CINCINNATI.

Close of the Slaughterhouse.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—At a meeting of the members of the Board of Health, the report of the Slaughterhouse was adopted. The meeting hereafter occur every two weeks. Competitive slaughtering is specially provided for. Other resolutions were adopted. Almost Fatal Results of a Trifling Accident.

This evening, as the watchman at the Slaughterhouse was lighting the gas, a flame came from the gas pipe, and the decorations, which took fire. The flames were extinguished, with no damage except to two or three flags. But the consequence was the death of a man. The watchman was turned on and the engines were soon on the spot. As the latter approached, a horse attached to a buggy took fright, running over the man. A Mrs. Wolf, who was badly hurt she will probably die. Geo. Hartley, six years old, was dangerously injured. The accident occurred while the Slaughterhouse was closing concert to-night was large though not the preceding evening. The total receipts of the concert have been about $20,000.

NEW MEXICO.

Perished in the Mountains—Indian Crops.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Advice from New Mexico mentions the death of John Drew, who perished by being lost in the mountains, while endeavoring to reach Ponce. His party, except one man, returned safely but suffered considerably. The crops of the Navajo Indians will be short, by reason of drought.

The Mexican Indians received the propositions to go on a reservation favorably.

COLUMBIA.

Canby Disposed of.

St. Louis, June 18.—Gen Canby arrived yesterday en route to the Pacific to take command of Department of Columbia River. The new act of Congress, which was passed by a vote of two-thirds of each house. The friends of Canby are all glad to see him, but say that he is volunteered on the staff of Gen. Robert Thomas to avoid conscription, and that he never performed any service in behalf of the Confederacy while in that capacity, and because, as an old friend, though a staunch Union man, Gen. Thomas protected him in that way from conscription. He is among the warmest friends of Gen. Thomas and Alex. H. Stephens. To radicals of the summer strike these are grave objections to the confirmation of Mr. Canby. In a brief executive session of the Senate the nomination of Canby was confirmed. Cabinet nominations made heretofore have generally been confirmed without reference.

ENGLAND.

A Missing Vessel Turns up.

LIVERPOOL, June 18.—The ship Express, which sailed from Liverpool, many months ago for this port, unexpectedly arrived here yesterday. The vessel was given up for lost, and the insurance was paid. The captain of the vessel which arrived here yesterday, reports having been in with an abandoned bark of about one thousand tons, in latitude 43 deg. 30 min. North, and longitude 24 deg. West, whose name he does not know.

The Yankee Congress.

LONDON, June 18.—The Saturday Review, in its comments on American affairs, says Congress has checked its audacity, and is still averse to adopting a liberal policy.

Improvement of Crops—Destructive Fire Caused by Lightning.

The Shippers' Gazette is confident that money will be distributed by the recent advance in grain. The recent showers have extended over a wide tract of country, and have been of incalculable service to the crops, which have been nearly destroyed by the long and continued dry weather. The lightning which fell on the first of June in the neighborhood of Wiltshire, several houses and barns were struck and burned. No loss of life.

The Annual race was won by Alexandria yesterday.

The miniature steamer City of Bangue has been repaired and will arrive for New York in a few days. She is at anchor in Cork harbor.

Non-Conformists and Education.

At a late meeting of Non-Conformists held in Liverpool last evening resolutions were passed in relation to the Education Bill. The resolutions were adopted by a large majority.

Cotton Factory Burned—Contested Election.

The cotton factory of Hall & Co., at Dundee, Scotland, was entirely destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000. The writer denies a story which says that the fire was caused by a man who was employed by the factory. The subject of the fire is a man who is a member of the House of Commons for Bristol, declines to contest his seat. The subject of the fire is a man who is a member of the House of Commons for Bristol, declines to contest his seat.

NEW YORK.

The Princess Editha—Her True Story.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Messieurs Woodhull & Claflin, whom the Princess Editha Gilbert Montez accuses of appropriating $4,000 of her own money, tell a story which puts an entirely different light upon the matter. They say that she came to them in rage and told a tale of want and despair, which induced them to assist in bringing her before the public as a lecturer in order to raise money for her. The idea of her owning jewels worth four thousand dollars appears to them utterly ridiculous.

Mr. Michael, editor of the Druggist's Circular, said on being asked: "That woman who calls herself Editha Montez is the greatest impostor and swindler that ever walked on two legs. She is the daughter of a former bookkeeper of John H. Becker, and her name is Claudia Solomon. A comely relative of mine, who has got himself into immense difficulties, called to figure as Count Napoleon de Plesny. She formed an acquaintance with him and perhaps gave her name to him, thus assuming the title of Princess Editha Montez. She used to come here and inquire about him, but I gave her to understand that he was dead. She has been heard no more of her until the affair of the lecture. As to her possessing diamonds or anything valuable whatever, it was perfectly ridiculous."

BALTIMORE.

An Ex-post facto in Trouble.

BALTIMORE, June 18.—A. B. Woodcock, late postmaster at Piedmont, Va., was arrested here yesterday by a special agent of the Postoffice Department for embezzling money of the United States, and was committed to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Costly Kissing.

Newton Siebert has recovered $2,000 in the Supreme Court of this city, from John Leeson, for kissing his wife's hand against her will.

LOUISVILLE.

$10,000 Reward.

LOUISVILLE, June 18.—A reward of ten thousand dollars is offered by the Mechanics' Bank for the arrest of the perpetrators of yesterday's robbery.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Mr. Conkling, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a substitute for the House bill in reference to the naturalization laws, and gave notice that he would call it up early. Said substitute is the Senate bill recently reported from the Judiciary Committee on the same subject with an additional section authorizing the United States Marshals in cities, having over twenty thousand inhabitants, to appoint as many special deputies as may be necessary to preserve order at any election at which members of Congress, to be chosen.

Mr. Howard called up the bill to amend the land grant passed October, 1868, in aid of a railroad and telegraph line from the State of Kansas and Arkansas to the Pacific coast by the Southern route. Several amendments being adopted, the bill after discussion was referred to the committee on the subject.

The Direct Tax of 1862.

Mr. Trumbull from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill for the relief of the purchasers of land sold for direct taxes in insurrectionary States.

Postal.

The Senate in the morning of the whole took up as unfinished business, the post-office appropriation bill and amendments relative to the repeal of franking privileges.

Mr. Thurman moved an amendment that the abolition of the franking privilege will not take effect until August.

Mr. Morton opposed the amendment for two cent postage as involving a loss of the postal revenue without any corresponding benefit, as it would increase the mail matter and per cent. He held that the present rates of postage were sufficiently low.

After further debate by the Senate on Mr. Ramsey's amendment as amended, abolishing the franking privilege, providing for one cent postage, etc., the amendment was rejected. Yes 15, no 30.

The bill was then reported to the Senate, numerous amendments were rejected. Senators asserting they would vote all amendments down. The Senate then adjourned till Monday.
